

ICT for empowering the poor

K.Raju

Principal Secretary to Govt of AP

Dept of Rural Development

Dec 2008

This presentation is about

- Access to information and use of ICT in the effective implementation of National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme in Andhra Pradesh, India

National Rural Employment Guarantee Act

- Effective in all the Districts of India since 2006, in a phased manner
- The Act guarantees certain rights and entitlements to the rural household
- Most important Right: Right to demand and secure 100 days of unskilled and manual work in the villages
- The Act poses tremendous challenges on the administration

Objective of the Act

- Livelihood security to the households in rural areas
- Hundred days of guaranteed wage employment to a family

Non - negotiables

- ✂ Hundred days of wage employment on demand in a financial year
- ✂ Equal wages to men and women
- ✂ Payment on fortnightly basis
- ✂ Ban on contractors and labour-displacing machinery
- ✂ Works shall be identified by local self government

Rights and Entitlements

- Minimum 100 days employment per year per family
- Equal wages for men and women
- Minimum wages
- Work site facilities
- Medical expenses for injured/ex-gratia for deceased
- Unemployment allowance

ICT is deployed as central to all the implementation processes

Indira Jeevitha Bima Pathakam - AABY.....a Group Insurance Scheme for the benefit of Rural Landless Agricultural Laborers through Life Insurance Corporation of India. In a rural landless household, when every day living is a struggle, it is difficult to face life with a smile. And it becomes even more difficult when the future of the landless labour family is uncertain. It is a overwhelming Social Security Measure for 38.00 lakh landless agricultural laborers in the State of Andhra Pradesh w.e.f 31.03.2008, so far ever taken place in the entire history of not only Andhra Pradesh but entire India.....

Vision

The Government of Andhra Pradesh under the dynamic leadership of Dr. Y.S Raja Sekhar Reddy envisions that even the poorest of the poor Landless Agricultural Laborers deserve access to relevant and affordable insurance and be protected from risks on death and disability. And the Government envisions that every person is insurable. And their children are financially supported for education through scholarships. And together we can make it happen across Andhra Pradesh through "Indira Jeevitha Bima Pathakam - AABY".

Mission

The mission of A.P Government is to empower the Community to play an active role in insurance operations, to reduce people's vulnerabilities through social security measures like Indira Jeevitha Bima Pathakam - AABY and to protect their income and asset base, by creating an enabling environment.
