Project objectives

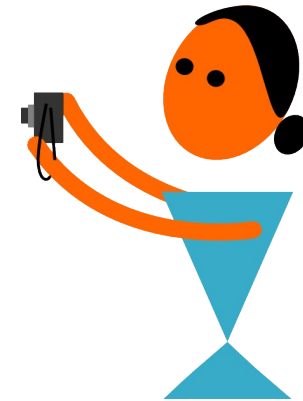

Enhancing participation of Elected Women Representatives in local governance processes.

Facilitating marginalized women's access to entitlements

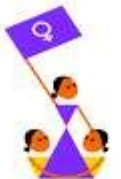

Community Media strategy for citizenship education

Village Information center

Creates a space that can bring local governance institutions closer to women, and particularly, enable marginalized women to seek their entitlements and develop new information architecture at community level with ICT possibilities

How does it function

- All information centers are Women run centers
- Young infomediary takes care of ongoings at the center

Community radio and community video are used as tools for women's citizenship education

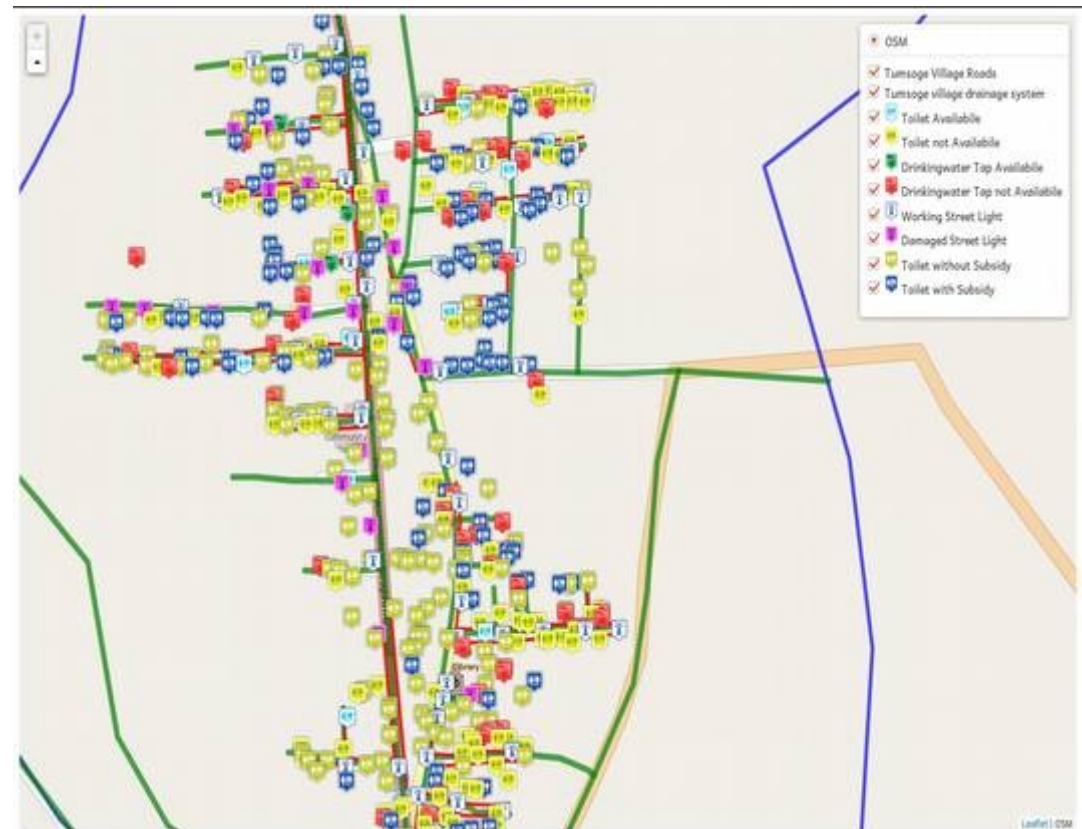

- Interactive Voice Response System (IVRS) is a tool for information dissemination

Geographic Information System (GIS) is a tool for encouraging dialogue and deliberation with local governance to undertake appropriate action.
