

Respondents' age group

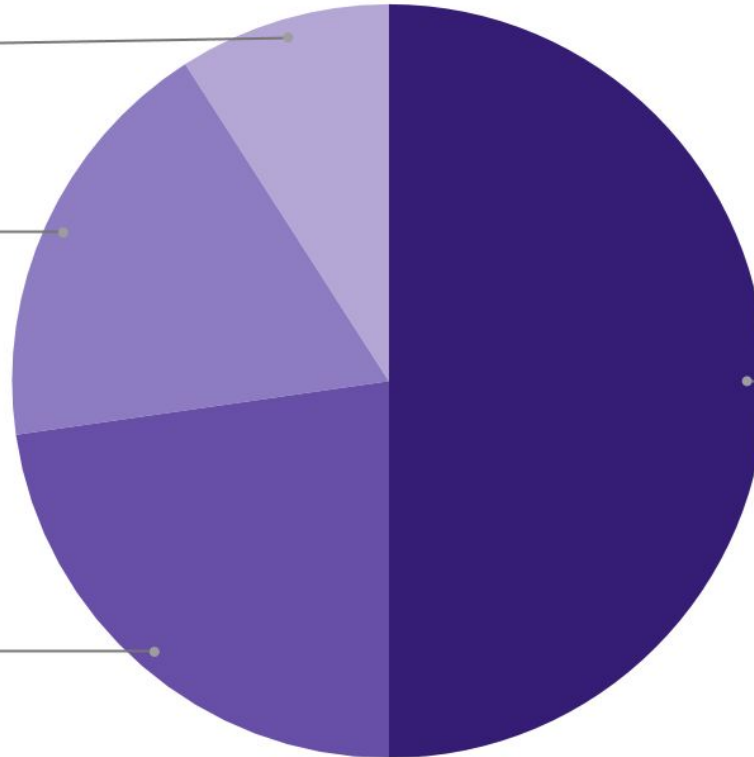

Age

50+ years
9.1%

40-49 years
18.2%

31-39 years
22.7%

20-30 years
50.0%

Respondents' sex

Participants' sex

Prefer not to say

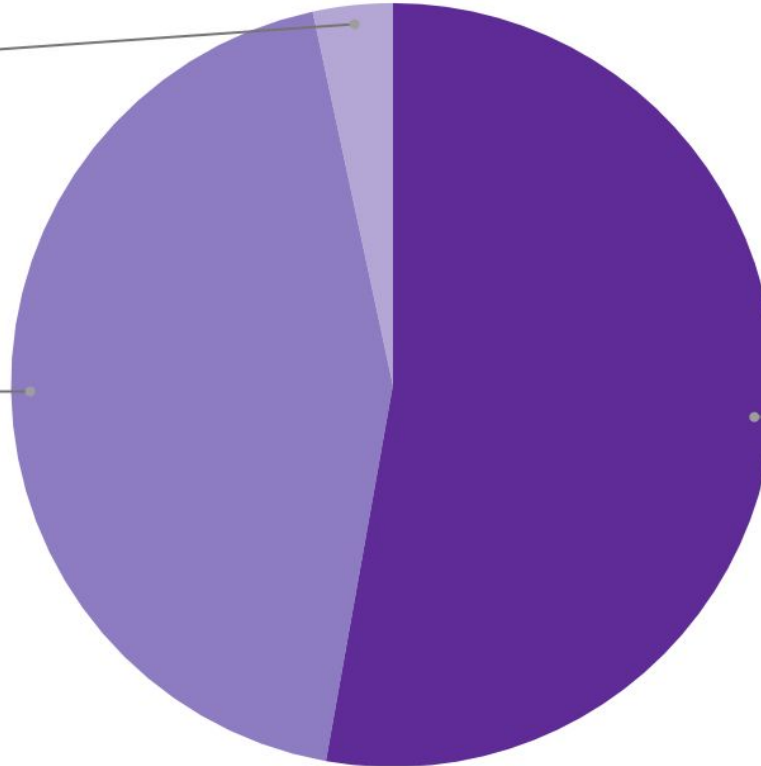

3.4%

Male

43.8%

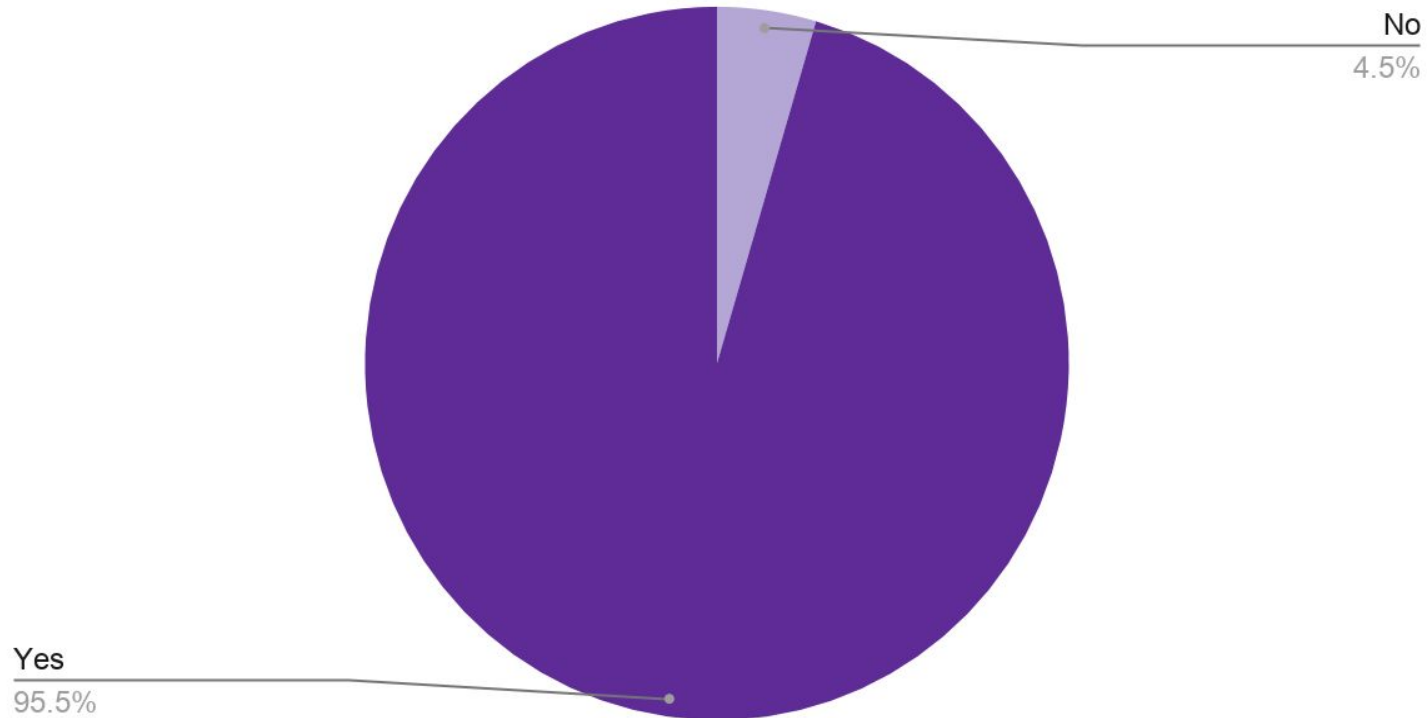

Female

52.8%

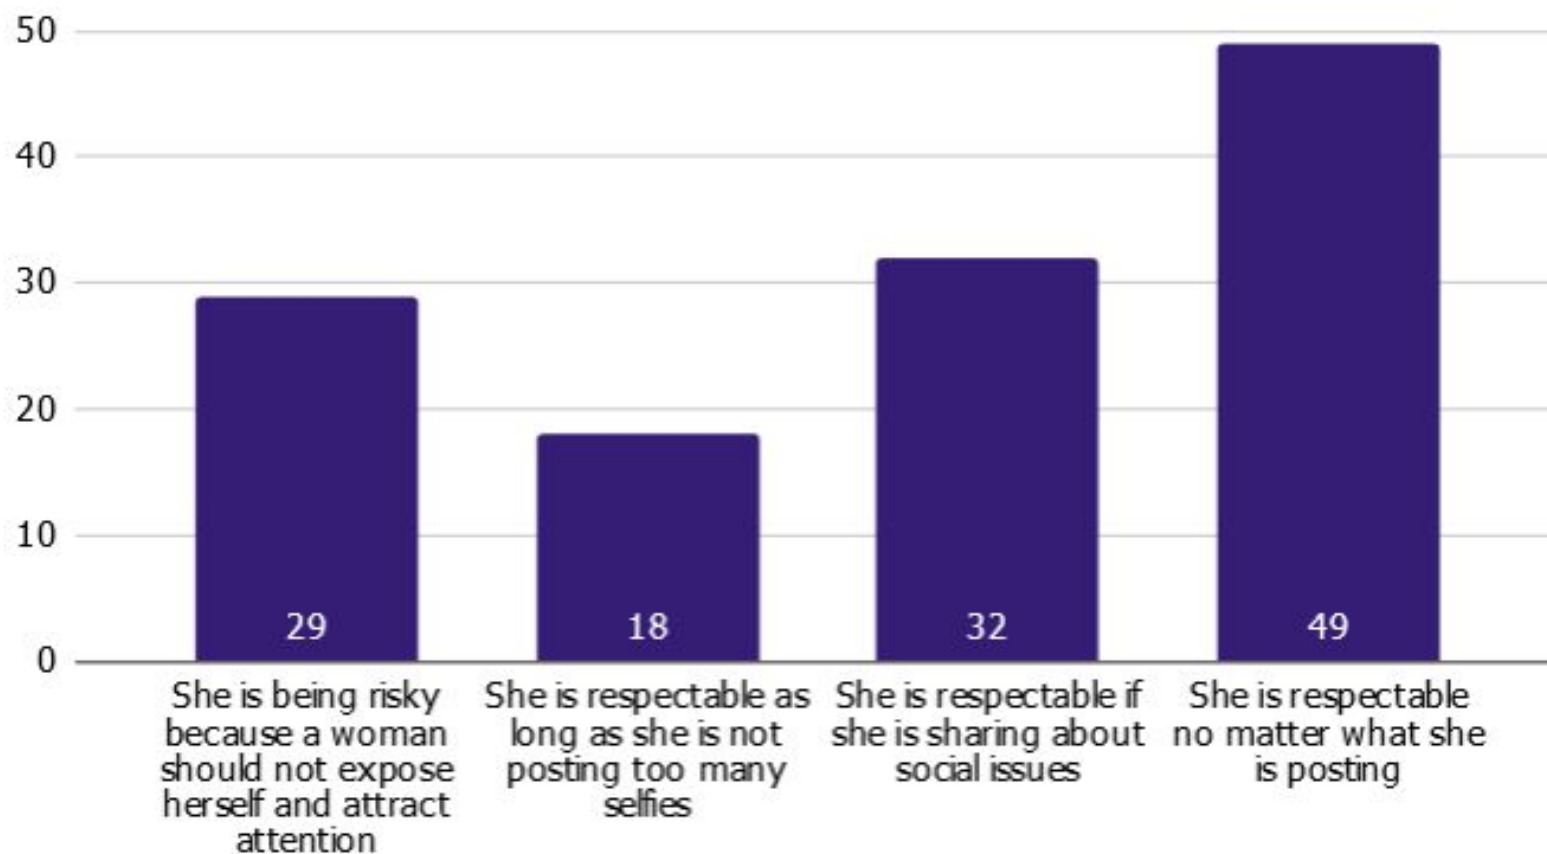

Respondents' social media usage

Do you use social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, WhatsApp, YouTube, etc.?

Respondents' thoughts on a woman who is active on social media

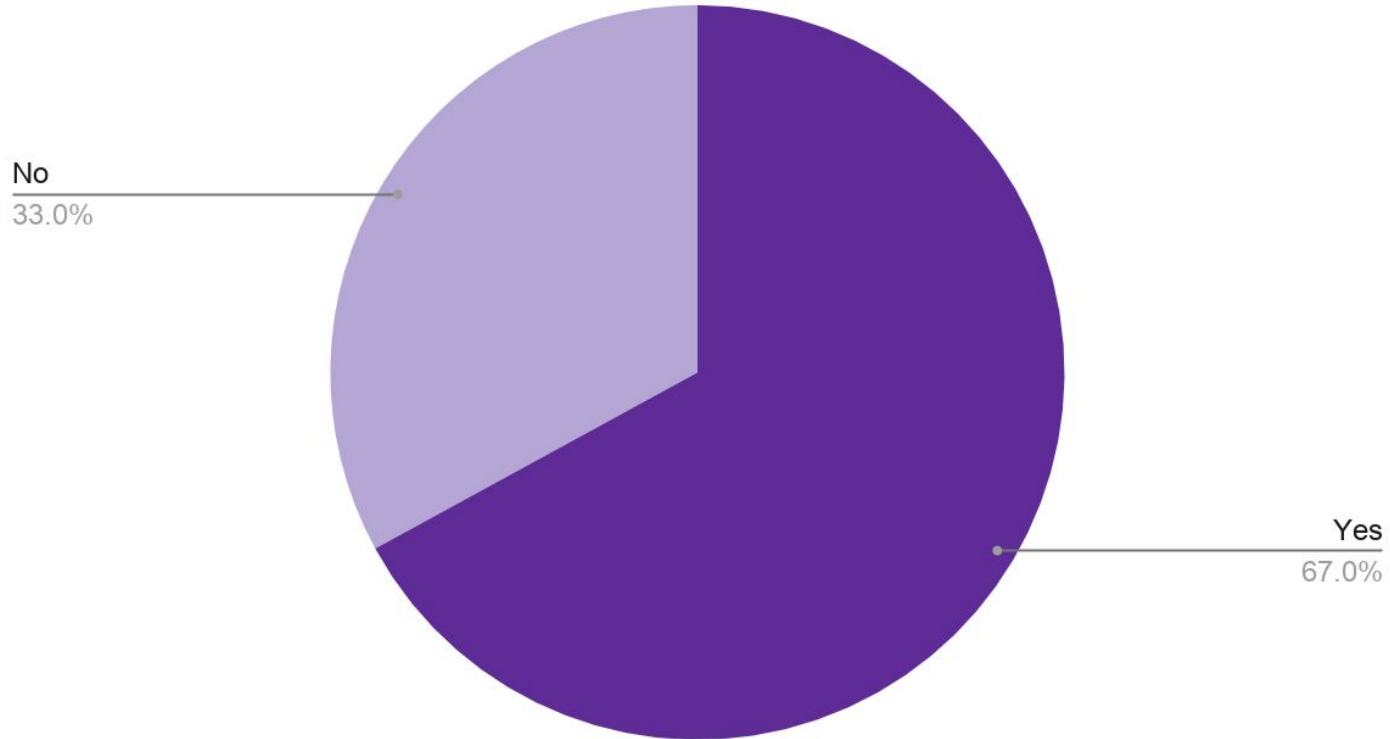

What are your thoughts about a woman who is active on social media?

A woman who expresses her opinion about politics, religion and society on social media is trolled a lot for speaking about such issues. — · — · —

67% of respondents think that women face more online violence due to their gender.

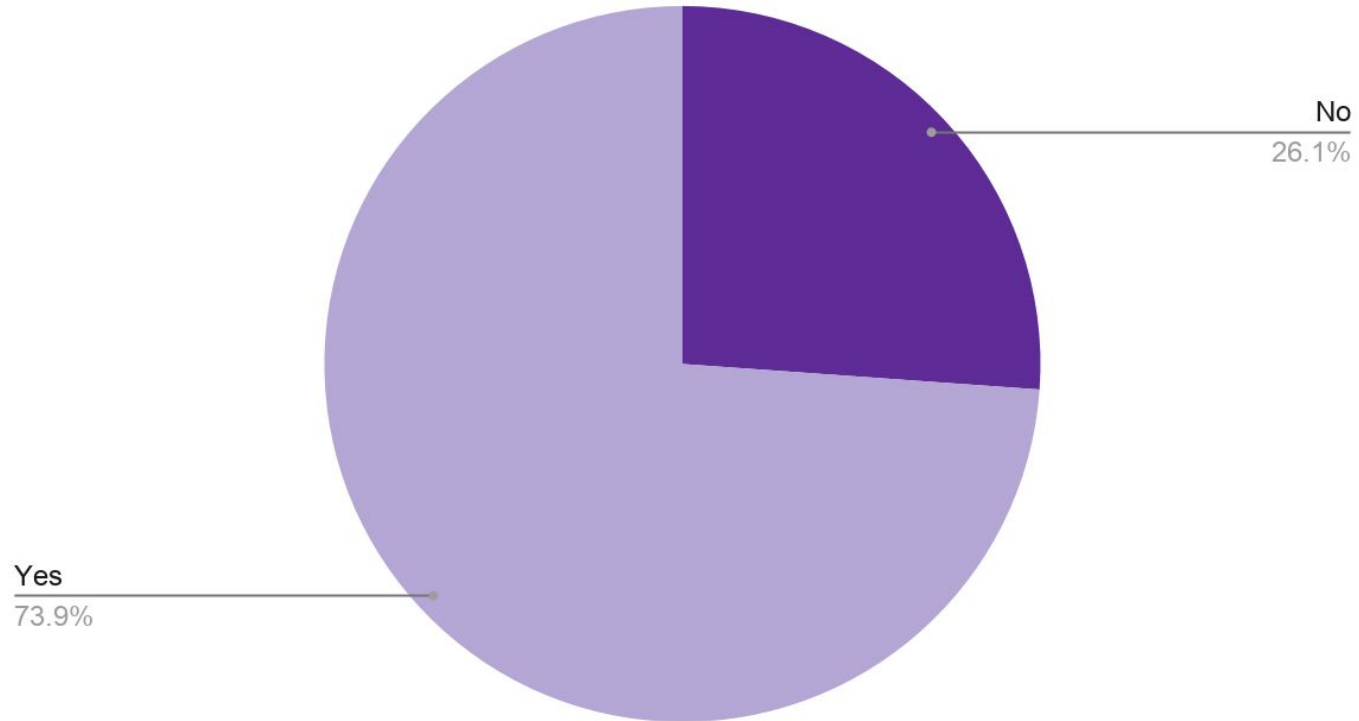

Do you think she is trolled more because she is a woman?

A woman who expresses her opinion about politics, religion and society on social media is trolled a lot for speaking about such issues. — · — · —

73% of the respondents think that women take trolling “too seriously” because they are “more sensitive”.

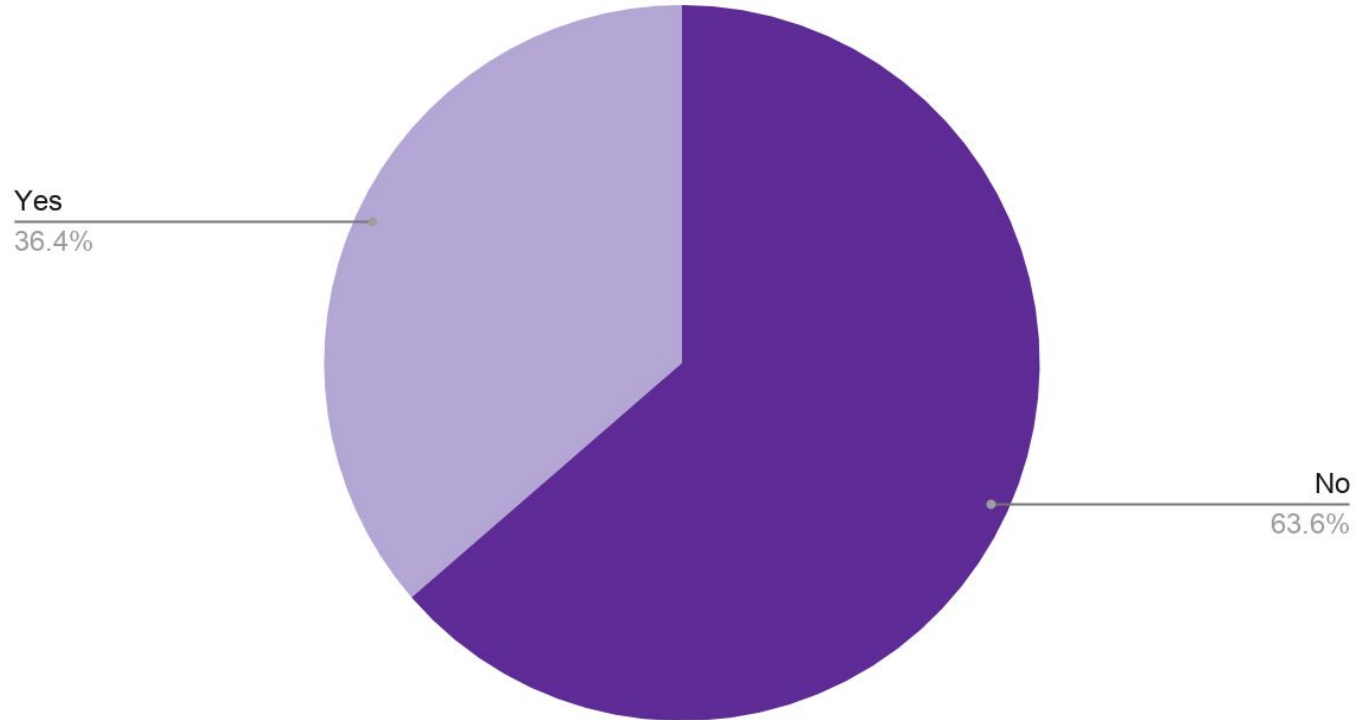

Do you think women are more sensitive and take trolling too seriously?

A woman who expresses her opinion about politics, religion and society on social media is trolled a lot for speaking about such issues. — · — · —

63% of the respondents do not think that trolling is caused by women's online behaviour.

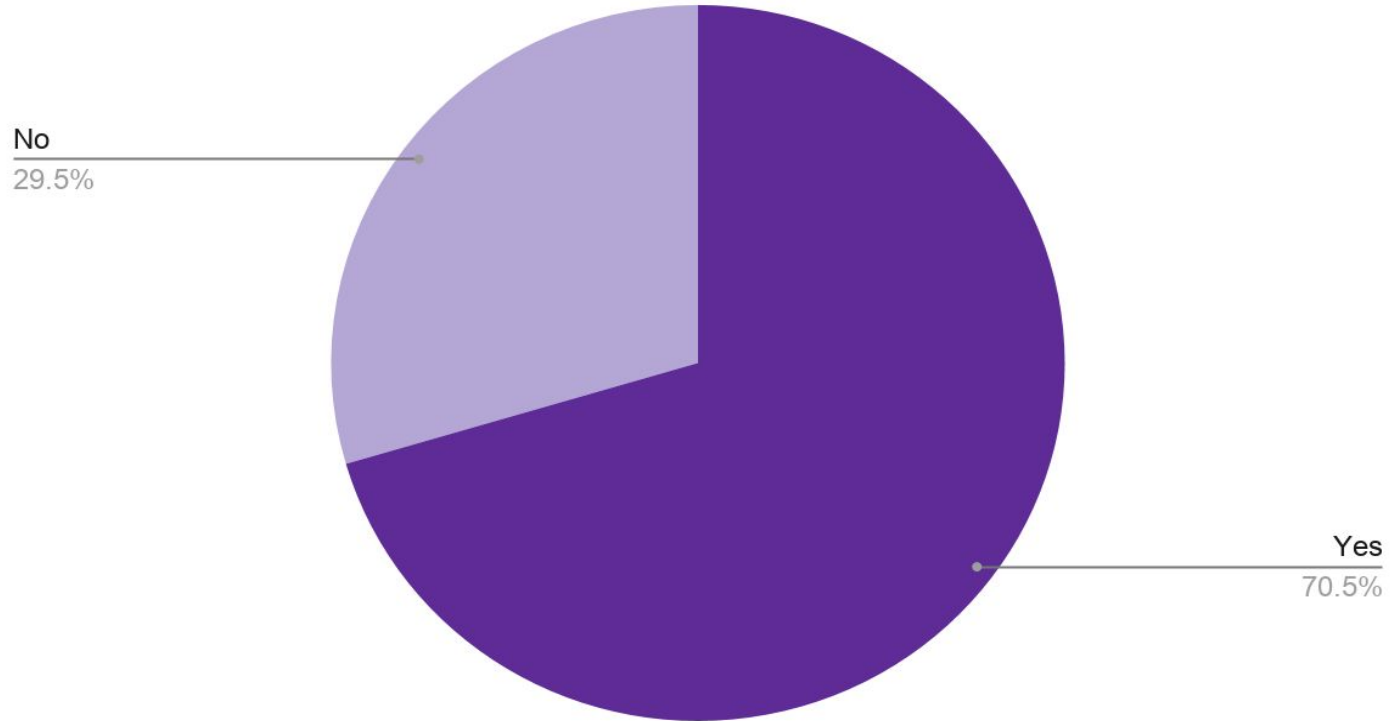

Do you think women get trolled online because of their own behaviour?

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. — . — . — . —

70% of the respondents would ask a woman they know to be careful while sharing her opinions on social media.

Would you ask her to be careful about what she posts?

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to be careful about what she posts? If so, why? — . — . — . — . — .

Those who would not advise a woman to be more careful about what she posts
said...

“Posting and dropping is her wish. So it is not a problem of trolls. The women of this country must face their own autonomy without being subjected to mental stress.”

– J3, 31-40 years, Female

“She is responsible for what she posts, not for what you understand.”

– N, 20-30 years, Male

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to be careful about what she posts? If so, why? — · — · — · — · — ·

Those who would not advise a woman to be more careful about what she posts
said...

“It's her life and her wish, she is responsible for what she posts.”

– U, 20-30 years, Female

“A women [sic] has equal rights to post things just as men. So if women are getting trolled then it's the poor mentality of the people.”

– G1, 20-30 years, Female

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to be careful about what she posts? If so, why? — . — . — . — . — .

Those who would advise a woman to be more careful about what she posts
said...

“To avoid negativity, better to be silent.”

– W, 31-40 years, Female

“Prevention is better than cure.”

– B, 20-30 years, Female

“Because that will bring harm to her.”

– P1, 31-40 years, Female

“Because the girl is sensitive, she cannot tolerate irony and stigma.”

– B3, 41-55 years, Male

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to be careful about what she posts? If so, why? — · — · — · — · — ·

Those who would advise a woman to be more careful about what she posts
said...

“Irrespective of a woman or man, I would say everyone should be careful of what they post. The post must not offend any particular person, religion, believe [sic] or community.”

– M1, 20-30 years, Female

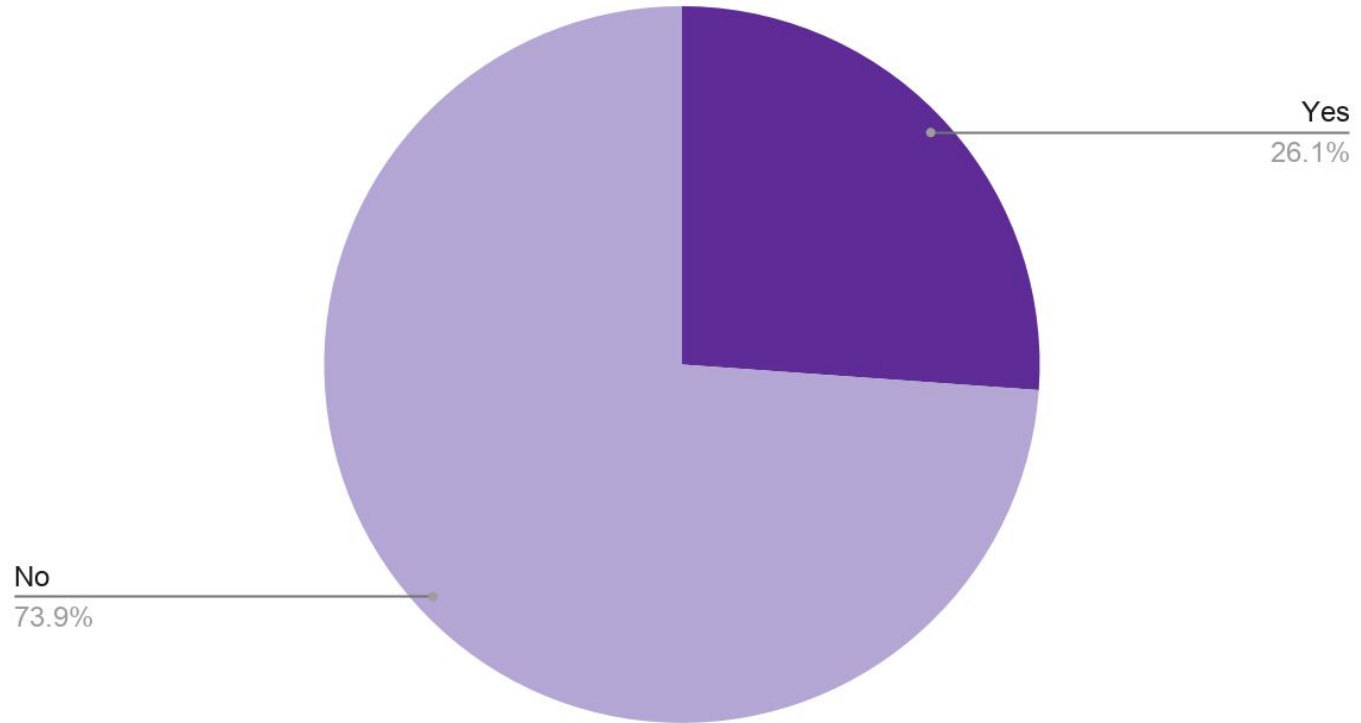

“Because everyone has to be sensitive towards whatsoever they are posting irrespective of being male or female. Expressing thoughts are [sic] fine till it is not anti-national and doesn't hurt core sentiments of the society.”

– F, 31-40 years, Female

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. — . — . — . —

26% of the respondents would tell a woman they know to stop sharing her opinion on social media to avoid trolling.

Would you tell her to stop posting?

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to stop posting? If so, why? — · — · — · — · — · — · — · — · — ·

Those who would not ask a woman who is being trolled to stop
posting said...

“Her freedom of expression. She cannot bow down to the mood of others. Trolls must respond legally.”

– J3, 31-40 years, Female

“There is a need to change the mentality of people than telling her to stop posting.”

– G1, 20-30 years, Female

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to stop posting? If so, why? — . — . — . — . — . — . — . — . — .

Those who would not ask a woman who is being trolled to stop
posting said...

“It is her personal handle. I have no right to ask her to post or stop posting.”

– M1, 20-30 years, Female

“Everyone has [the] right to express [themselves].”

– F, 31-40 years, Female

“It is her independent opinion.”

– R1, 41-55 years, Female

A woman you are friends with or related to is sharing her opinion on social media and getting trolled with horrible messages. Would you ask her to stop posting? If so, why? — . — . — . — . — . — . — . — . — .

Those who would ask a woman who is being trolled to stop posting said...

“If she is stressed out from trolling then it's better to stop it.”

– V, 31-40 years, Female

“This is just a precautionary measure, and [I] do not suggest to upload unnecessary selfies and own photos [sic].”

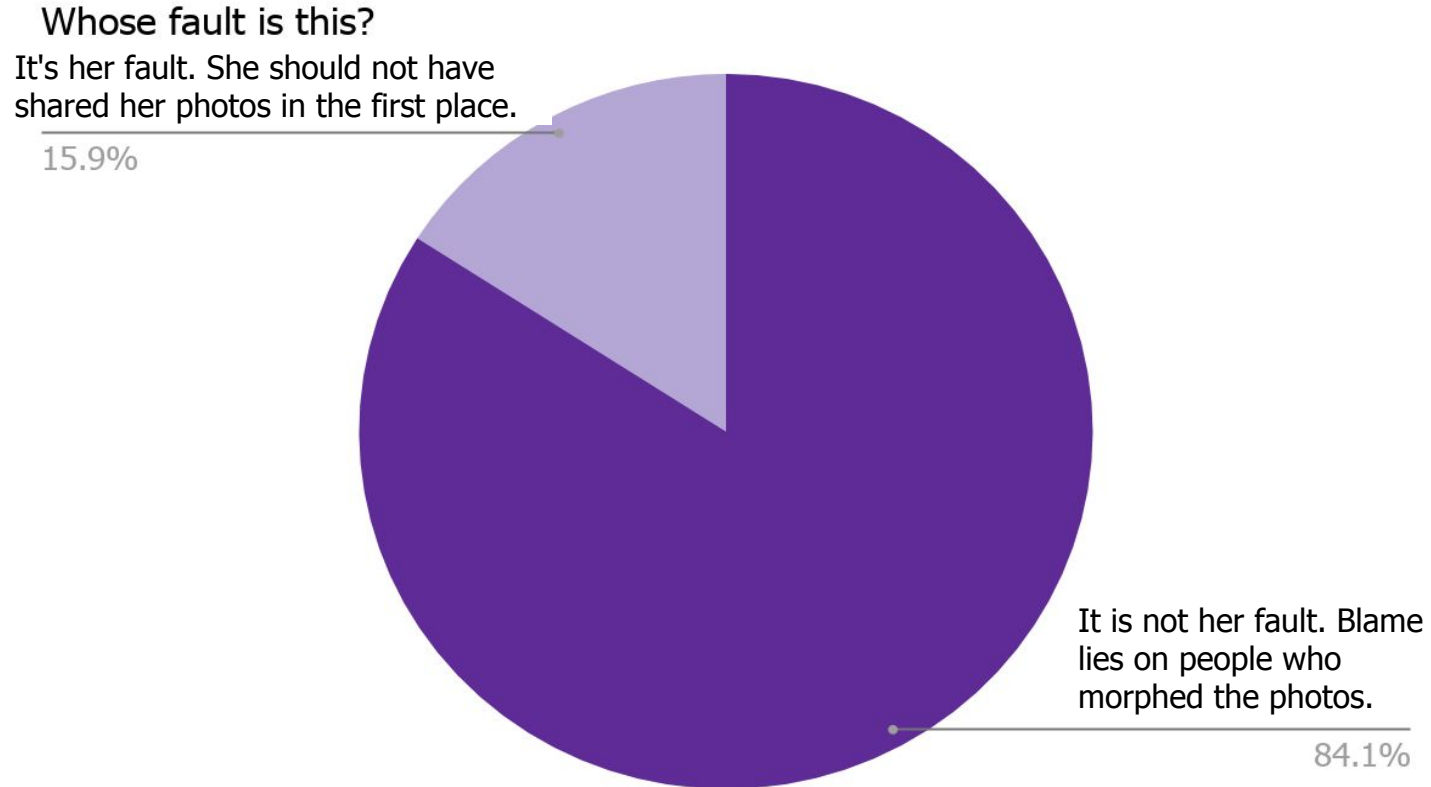

– E3, 20-30 years, Female

“For their safety and respect.”

–U3, 31-40 years, Male

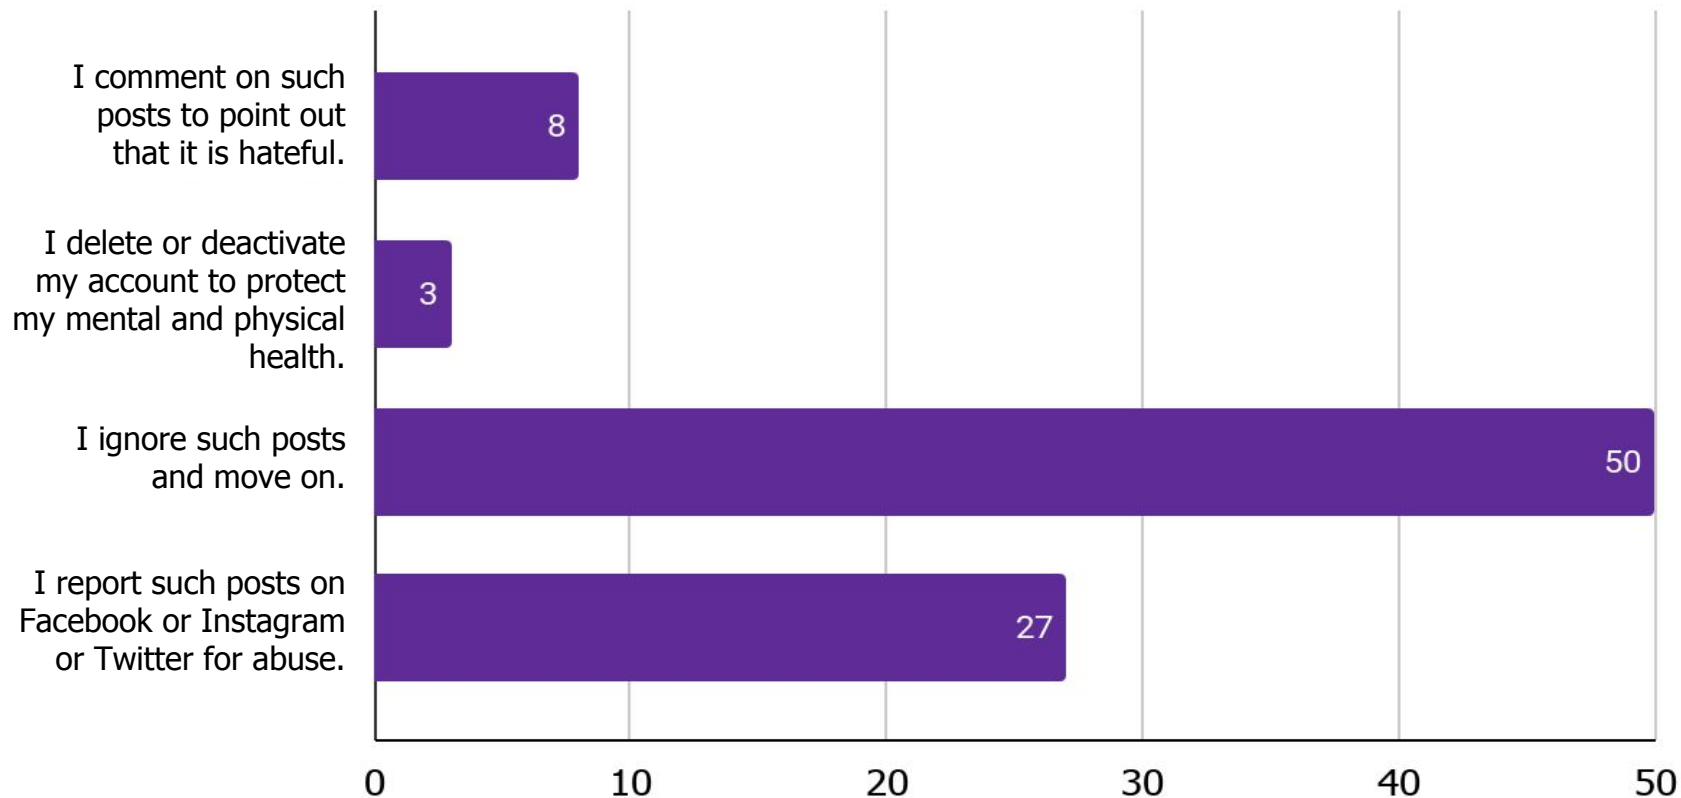

A woman shares photos on social media. Later she finds her face is being put on nude photos and shared by someone. Whose fault is this? — · — 84% of the respondents think that a woman is not at fault if the photos she shares on her social media are misused by online abusers.

How do you respond when you see sexist hate online? — . — . — . — .

How do you respond when you see sexist hate online?

Thank you!
