

Reframing AI Governance through a Political Economy Lens

A hybrid roundtable organized by IT for Change and Transnational Institute

Agenda

Time (CET)	Session
9.00-9.10	Opening remarks
9.10-10.10	Monopoly power, Big Tech and AI Margarida Silva, SOMO Bram Vranken, Corporate Europe Observatory Roland Kulke, Transform Europe Nick Srnicek, Kings College (virtual)
10.10-11.10	Rethinking AI Governance Shyam Krishna, Turing Institute Sabrina Kuspert, Stiftung Neue Verantwortung Marta Poblet, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (virtual) Sreekanth Mukku, Hippo AI Foundation
11.10-11.20	Break
11.20-12.20	Rethinking AI Governance (contd.) Lara Groves, Ada Lovelace Institute (virtual) Renato Berrino Malaccorto, Open Data Charter Jai Vipra, Independent Researcher (virtual) José Renato Laranjeira de Pereira, Laboratory of Public Policy and Internet (LAPIN)
12.20-13.20	Lunch
13.20-14.20	AI in Action: Sectoral Deep Dives Rodrigo Fernandez, SOMO Kai-Hsin Hung, HEC (virtual) Le Anh Long, University of Twente
14.20-15.20	Interrogating AI: Ethical paradigms Yousif Hassan, University of Illinois Nandini Chami, IT for Change Sareeta Amrute, The New School (virtual) Martin Luther Munu, Maastricht University
15.20-15.30	Break
15.30-16.30	Interrogating AI: Ethical paradigms (contd) Gea Meijers, WIDE + Chenai Chair, Mozilla (virtual) Alexandre Costa Barbosa, Institute for Technology and Society of Rio de Janeiro Quito Tsui, The Engine Room
16.30-16.40	Closing remarks